

Upjohn Lecture 2019

Christina Blackwell

'From Equality and Diversity to Inklusivity and Belonging in the Law'

Christina Blackwell is the immediate past President of the Law Society of England and Wales, having served from 2018-2019. She is a member of the Family Justice Council, trustee of LawWorks, a member of the Judicial Diversity Forum, and chair of the government's Lawtech Delivery Panel.

The annual Lord Upjohn lectures reflect the focus of the Association of Law Teachers in promoting excellence in legal education, bringing together scholars, practitioners, policy-makers and other key stakeholders to debate and reflect on legal education discourse.

14 November 2019

5:30 for 6:00 pm

City Law School, Atkin Building
